Escape in time, or slip into darkness...

SYNOPSIS

Experimental scientist Douglas, finds himself trapped inside a 30-minute time loop when he accidentally breaks his new time machine prototype. Stuck inside a hotel room, Douglas must try to break free and keep his sanity in the process.

Starring Dave Leon, Stuck is a fun and surreal sci-fi trip into insanity, inspired by funk music of the 1970s.

Dave Leon as Douglas

Dave Leon stars as Douglas, a critical thinker, logistician, and a man of science. However, Douglas' whole worldview is flipped upside when he is tested by his own device.

In his second collaborations with Fiorio and Richards, Dave tests his strength in a one man show, where his psyche is his own worst enemy. Dave gives an emotional rollercoaster of a performance, taking us to the depths of insanity, all the way to a major breakthrough in success, only to find that he may have another problem on his hands.

DIRECTOR, Grady Fiorio

Grady Fiorio is an award-winning writer and director, who works as a freelance filmmaker. His work spans feature films, short films, commercials, and music videos. First developing his skills in post-production and VFX, Grady then moved on to writing and directing projects of his own. Through his journey, Grady has also gone on to develop his career as an actor, working on projects such as the Star Wars series Skeleton Crew, and Damien Chazelle's Babylon.

Originally getting his start in the California Bay Area, Grady has now focused his talents in Los Angeles, producing and directing independent projects where quality is key. He often returns to the Bay to develop new projects and work with lifelong industry friends.
